

¹ Very fine sand fraction (0.05 – 0.1 mm) is treated as silt for Soil Taxonomy family groupings; coarse fragments are considered the equivalent of coarse sand in the boundary between silty and loamy classes.

All of this material is from the Soil Survey Manual: Field Book for Describing and Sampling Soils, NRCS, September 2002.